

Open it up! Lab

The Goal: Take apart a computer and spread all its components on the table, identify them, and take pictures of them. The pictures will be included in an electronic lab report.

Important: Be safe! Do not force anything. Ask for help if you're not sure!

Helpers: Make sure you ask our volunteer helpers for information on how to remove things, and how to identify parts.

